CURATE AND PUBLISH

COMPETENCE	LEVEL FOUNDATION	LEVEL INTERMEDIATE	LEVEL ADVANCED
Re-elaborate and remix digital content	I can make basic changes to the content that others have produced.	I can edit, refine and modify the content I or others have produced.	I can mash-up existing items of content to create new ones.
EXAMPLES	I can edit the first draft of an assignment I produce and accept the track changes of my teacher. I can edit the PowerPoint presentation draft that my classmate sent me for revision.	When I produce an assignment, I often integrate material that I've created with figures or tables from other sources that I cite to illustrate certain points in my argument. Teacher asks me to create a new PowerPoint presentation on a certain topic; I create it combining material from different sources that he/she sent to me.	When I produce an assignment, I can use software that allows me to draw data from existing sources through links, without needing to copy and paste it. Teacher asks me to create a new PowerPoint presentation on a certain topic; I use a template that allows me to draw data from sources that he/she sent to me, without needing to copy and paste them.
