CURATE AND PUBLISH

COMPETENCE	LEVEL FOUNDATION	LEVEL INTERMEDIATE	LEVEL ADVANCED
Use online publishing tools	I can create simple digital content using online publishing tools (social media, blog platforms, etc.)	I can use online publishing tools to create content in different formats including multimedia, and edit and improve content that others have created.	I can use a variety of digital tools for creating original multimedia outputs and expressing creatively through digital media and technologies.
EXAMPLES	I need to present my ideas to others in the class, and can use technology to do this creatively.

My school is organizing a charity football match; to communicate the event I write a post on a social platform giving the information to participate. | I need to present my ideas to others in the class, and I can use presentation software, images, video and music to do this creatively.

My school is organizing a charity football match; to communicate the event I write a post on my blog or on a social platform, integrating my text with the one published on the school website and adding images to make it more interesting. | I need to present my ideas to others in the class, and know how to integrate audio, text, images, video and music in film formats.

My school is organizing a charity football match; to communicate the event I produce a short video in which I interview the organizers, and publish it on my blog or on a social platform, adding the information to participate. |